Break Down. On yesterday morning a wagon load of coal to which an empty wagon was attached, was driving up Quincy street when the hind axle of the empty wagon broke short of next to the wheel, letting that part of the vehicle down to the ground.

A Concert. We are glad to know that some of the entertaining members of St. Matthew's Church propose giving a concert of a similar character to the one which took place some months since.

An Explanation. John Johnson, whose name appears in yesterday morning's police report, is not the person that some who reside on Main street, North Wheeling, but an elderly shoemaker in Center Wheeling.

Narrow Escape. Yesterday morning some boys on the upper part of Quincy near Sixth were hanging upon a passing hay wagon.

No Men might play. Or Balle. A young boy was seen yesterday morning playing ball on the street near the depot.

The Crack Balle also held to-day. ANNIVERSARY OF THE REFORMATION. Tomorrow will be observed throughout the land, in the Lutheran and Reformed churches with special reference to the three hundred and fifty-first anniversary of the Protestant Reformation.

SUBREPTITIOUS. William Robinson was brought before Judge Johnson yesterday morning charged with being a fugitive from justice. The evidence was judged sufficient to warrant retaining the prisoner in custody.

RIVER NEWS. The water fell one inch yesterday, and still has a downward tendency.

THE BOATMEN. The Forest City went up at 3 p.m., though the water is getting quite low again for the Steubenville trade.

ALL MOONSHINE. We are not sentimental, neither are we spooners. There was, perhaps, a stigma in the youthful period of our existence, when such a charge might have found at least a partial justification.
